

Creative Europe Cooperation Webinar

A two-days cooperation webinar: 25th-27th January 2023

Webinar on preparing applications and building partnerships in the Performing Arts sector for the Creative Europe call expiring on 23th February 2023.

Open Street aisbl organizes a two-day webinar on Wednesday 25th and Friday 27th January 2023. The meeting will be aimed to understand all the theoretical and practical aspects of the last Creative Europe Call - Cooperation Projects – in order to prepare good applications by the deadline of February 23th, 2023.

Open Street is a performing arts network that embraces Europe and has been successful with EU culture tenders countless times. One of its tasks is to bring together organizations from all countries of the continent in the performing arts sector and to foster the creation of new partnerships. That's why the initiative at the end of January is not just a workshop but a cultural cooperation event.

The meeting will take place on Zoom platform. In the two afternoons it will be possible to follow and participate of work in English, Italian and French, thanks to the provision of 3 different audio channels within the platform and the simultaneous translation carried out by professional interpreters.
